This day-long workshop, designed for those acquainted with the Labyrinth, provides an opportunity to learn the basics of Labyrinth facilitation.

This Labyrinth Facilitator Training is for you if...

- *You seek to deepen your knowledge of and experience with the Labyrinth
- *You want to learn how to share the Labyrinth experience with others
- *You want to explore ways to further incorporate the Labyrinth into your personal and/or professional journey
- *You want a Labyrinth workshop tailored to your needs and goals

Topics may include:

- *The history, types, and current uses/applications of the Labyrinth
- *Permanent and portable Labyrinths
- *Settings for Labyrinth experiences
- *The Labyrinth as ritual
- *Types of Labyrinth Walks

- * The role of the facilitator (as witness and ritual-space keeper)
- *Introducing the Labyrinth to participants
- *The role of the facilitator during the Labyrinth experience
- *Creative processing following the Labyrinth experience
- *Taking the experience home
- *Hand-held Labyrinths
- *Music and silence
- *Communicating about the Labyrinth
- *Research about the Labyrinth
- *Practical considerations: Setting fees, locating space, purchasing a Labyrinth, sharing resources (books, articles, etc.), selling Labyrinth items
- *Labyrinth resources: people, organizations

Objectives

By the completion of this workshop, participants will:

1. Be knowledgeable about the history and current applications of the Labyrinth.
2. Understand the Labyrinth as ritual space and ritual activity.
3. Identify the role of the Labyrinth facilitator before, during, and after the Labyrinth experience.
4. Learn strategies for communicating about the Labyrinth with various individuals and groups.

About the Facilitators

Janine Mariscotti and Lynne Texter are co-founders of LabyrinthJourney Network and experienced Labyrinth Facilitators who design dynamic Labyrinth presentations and workshops for individuals, organizations, corporations, human service agencies, churches, and retreat centers.

Janine Mariscotti, MSW, LCSW

Janine is a Veriditas-trained Labyrinth facilitator with more than 25 years experience working with individuals, families and groups. She is an Assistant Professor of Social Work at La Salle University in Philadelphia, PA and a psychotherapist specializing in issues of spirituality, and loss and grief. Janine writes, presents, and conducts workshops on the role of ritual in everyday life, holistic healing, disenfranchised grief and transpersonal issues.

Lynne Texter, Ph.D.

Lynne is an Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Communication at La Salle University in Philadelphia, PA. An award winning educator with over 20 years of university teaching experience, Lynne is an author of Advanced Interpersonal Communication and articles on professional renewal, the role of ritual in times of illness, and the Labyrinth during times of trauma. She has extensive experience consulting with non-profit organizations and governmental agencies.
